(a) Statement of Facts

Endless River is a small Ohio limited liability company with one full-time employee. Trans Union is a global, publicly traded company, organized under Delaware law, which maintains a principal place of business in Illinois.

Richard Bonitz, Phil Wintering, and Ron Somich—all former Insurance.com executives—formed Endless River in 2009. They formed it to monetize what is now called the Quote Exchange—Mr. Bonitz’s novel idea to streamline online, comparative insurance price-quoting for consumers.

The three founders—and especially Mr. Bonitz and Mr. Wintering—had substantial experience in the auto insurance space and spent the next several years developing the concept internally and gauging market interest. Once they finalized the concept and confirmed market interest, Endless River began approaching larger companies (including Trans Union) to pursue joint development efforts to take the Quote Exchange concept to market.

After commencing discussions in early 2013, Endless River and Trans Union entered into a Development Agreement and Contract for Services (the “Agreement”) on March 31, 2014. Under the Agreement, Endless River was to provide business, technical, and product design resources while Trans Union promised to fund the Quote Exchange development and secure and maintain the IT and business resources required to bring it to market.

In the Agreement, Trans Union and Endless River agreed that Endless River would have the right to use, possess, market and monetize the Quote Exchange until and unless Trans Union exercised certain buyout rights after the product achieved a specific level of profitability. The parties further agreed that—if Trans Union terminates the Agreement or abandons or substantially curtails the Quote Exchange—all intellectual property rights (including the source code) shall revert to ERT.

The relationship between Trans Union and Endless River was not a positive one. Testimony from Endless River principals will establish that Trans Union forced them out of the business development and technical processes—despite Endless River’s extensive experience in the insurance technology industry and deep relationships with insurance carriers—and that Trans Union botched the implementation of the Quote Exchange. Ultimately, the Quote Exchange went live in 2016, but Trans Union did not secure appropriate carriers on the platform to make it successful.

Then, on October 4, 2017, Trans Union provided 180-day notice to Endless River that it was terminating the Agreement. Later that month, Trans Union sent “stop production” notices to a number of carriers, advising them that they were shutting down the Quote Exchange and that there “will not be any further quoting activity within the platform from this point forward.”

Endless River immediately demanded—under the terms of the Agreement—that Trans Union return the Quote Exchange intellectual property, including the Quote Exchange source code, so that Endless River could continue to monetize the Quote Exchange. Rather than turning it over, Trans Union immediately revoked and prevented Endless River’s access to its work laptops, work accounts, and all work product for the Quote Exchange by disabling the laptops on which Endless River worked. It then sent Endless River a “termination agreement,” requiring payment of millions of dollars before Trans Union would turn over any intellectual property—essentially holding the code hostage.

In addition, Trans Union went to the market (including carriers and third parties that Trans Union knew Endless River had contacted post-termination-notice) and proclaimed: (1) that Trans

Union owned the Quote Exchange; (2) that it was shutting it down; and (3) that there would be no more quoting activity on the Quote Exchange. Indeed, Trans Unions specifically spoke to executives from LeadCloud and ITC to prevent them from partnering with Endless River to bring the Quote Exchange back to market. Trans Union even tried to sell the Quote Exchange source code to LeadCloud despite admittedly not owning it.

On April 24, 2018, Endless River filed this action, asserting claims for breach of contract, conversion, defamation, slander of title, misappropriation of trade secrets, violation of the Illinois Deceptive Trade Practices Act (later amended to assert a claim under the Ohio Deceptive Trade Practices Act), and tortious interference. On February 2, 2022, this Court issued its Opinion and Order on the parties' cross-motions for summary judgment, holding that the Agreement was clear and unambiguous and explicitly provided that the Quote Exchange source code reverted to Endless River's ownership.

Following this Court's ruling, six claims remain: (1) breach of contract; (2) defamation; (3) slander of title; (4) misappropriation of trade secrets under the Defend Trade Secrets Act; (5) violation of the Ohio Deceptive Trade Practices Act; and (6) tortious interference with business expectancy.

(b) Controlling Law

I. Breach of Contract

The Agreement is governed by Illinois law. To prevail on a breach of contract claim under Illinois law, Endless River must establish the following elements:

1. The existence of a valid and enforceable contract;
2. Substantial performance on the part of Endless River;
3. A breach of the contract by Trans Union; and
4. Injury to Endless River.

Avila v. CitiMortgage, Inc., 801 F.3d 777, 786 (7th Cir. 2015)

II. Trade Secret Misappropriation

To prevail on a claim for misappropriation of trade secrets under the Defend Trade Secrets Act, 18 U.S.C. 18 U.S.C. § 1836 et seq., Endless River must establish the following elements:

1. The existence of a protectable trade secret;
2. Misappropriation of the trade secret by Trans Union; and
3. That the trade secret is related to a product or service used in interstate commerce.

18 U.S.C. § 1836(b)(1); see also Noco Co. v. CTEK, Inc., No. 1:19 CV 00853, 2020 WL 821485, at *6 (N.D. Ohio Feb. 18, 2020) (Nugent, J.)

Courts consider six factors in determining whether information constitutes a trade secret:

1. The extent to which the information is publicly known;
2. The extent to which it is known to those inside the business;
3. The precautions the holder of the trade secret takes to protect the information;
4. The value to the holder in having the information;
5. The amount of time and money expended in obtaining and developing the information; and
6. The time and expense it would take others to duplicate the information.

See Handel's Enter's, Inc. v. Schulenburg, 765 Fed Appx. 117, 122 (6th Cir. 2019); Noco, 2020 WL 821485, at *7. Trade secrets include “programs” or “codes.” 18 U.S.C. § 1839(3).

Misappropriation is the “disclosure or use of a trade secret of another without express or implied consent by a person who . . . at the time of disclosure or use, knew or had reason to know that the knowledge of the trade secret was . . . acquired under circumstances giving rise to a duty to maintain the secrecy of the trade secret or limit the use of the trade secret.” 18 U.S.C. § 1839(5)(B)(ii)(II).

III. Defamation

To prevail on its defamation claim, Endless River must prove four elements:

1. A false and defamatory statement concerning another;
2. An unprivileged publication to a third party;
3. Fault amounting to at least negligence on the part of Trans Union; and
4. Either actionability of the statement irrespective of special harm or the existence of special harm caused by the publication.

Kontar v. Am. Geophysical Union, No. 16-3491, 2017 WL 3402078, at *2 (6th Cir. Jan. 5, 2017).

IV. Slander of Title

To state a claim for slander of title, Endless River must prove four elements:

1. The publication of a slanderous statement disparaging Endless River’s title;
2. The statement was false;
3. The statement was made with malice or made with reckless disregard for its falsity; and
4. The statement caused actual or special damages.

See Wolfe v. Bank of New York Mellon, No. 2:14-CV-00366, 2015 WL 12734085, at *8 (S.D. Ohio Mar. 16, 2015) (citing Green v. Lemarr, 139 Ohio App.3d 414 (2000)).

V. Tortious Interference with Business Expectancy

To prevail on a claim for tortious interference with business expectancy, Endless River must prove four elements:

1. The existence of a prospective business relationship;
2. Trans Union's knowledge thereof;
3. An intentional interference causing a breach or termination of the relationship; and
4. Damages resulting therefrom.

See First-Knox Nat'l Bank v. MSD Properties, Ltd., 47 N.E.3d 490, 494 (Ohio Ct. App. 2015).

VI. Ohio Deceptive Trade Practices Act

The Ohio Deceptive Trade Practices Act (“ODTPA”), Ohio Rev. Code Ann. § 4165.01 et seq., provides that a party engages in a deceptive trade practice when the party, among other things: (1) “passes off goods or services as those of another”; (2) “causes likelihood of confusion or misunderstanding as to the source, sponsorship, approval, or certification of goods or services”; or (3) “disparages the goods, services, or business of another by false representation of fact.” Ohio Rev. Code Ann. § 4165.02(A)(1), (2), (10).

(c) Proposed Witness List

Endless River will call the following witnesses at trial:

1. Richard Bonitz: Mr. Bonitz is a founder of Endless River and serves as its president and managing partner. Endless River has also disclosed Mr. Bonitz as a non-reporting expert pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(2)(C). Areas of testimony include the Quote Exchange, the parties' development of the Quote Exchange, the market for the Quote Exchange, the manner in which Trans Union's mismanagement led to Quote Exchange's underperformance, Trans Union's failure to turn the Quote Exchange source code over to Endless River, Trans Union's tortious conduct, and the harm that Trans Union's conduct caused Endless River.
2. Phil Wintering: Mr. Wintering is a founder of Endless River. Areas of testimony include the Quote Exchange, the parties' development of the Quote Exchange, the market for the Quote Exchange, the manner in which Trans Union's mismanagement led to Quote Exchange's underperformance, Trans Union's failure to turn the Quote Exchange source code over to Endless River, Trans Union's tortious conduct, and the harm that Trans Union's conduct caused Endless River.
3. Ronald Somich: Mr. Somich is a founder of Endless River. Areas of testimony include the manner in which Trans Union's mismanagement led to Quote Exchange's underperformance and the financial modeling process for Quote Exchange.
4. Dr. Andrew Malec, PhD: Dr. Malec is a partner and managing director at O'Keefe, and also serves as the firm's chief economist. Endless River has disclosed Mr. Bonitz as an expert witness -reporting expert pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(2)(B). Areas of testimony include the damages that Endless River has suffered as a result of TransUnion's conduct.

Endless River may call the following witnesses:

5. Emily Lebowitz: Ms. Lebowitz is a Product Manager at Trans Union. Endless River may call Ms. Lebowitz as an adverse witness. Areas of testimony include Trans Union's performance under the parties' agreement, contractual and technological delays in implementing Quote Exchange, and Trans Union's statements to third party market participants following TransUnion's decision to end its involvement with Quote Exchange.
6. Geoffrey Hakel: Mr. Hakel is an Executive Vice President at Trans Union. Endless River may call Mr. Hakel as an adverse witness. Areas of testimony include Trans Union's decision to enter into an agreement with Endless River to develop and market Quote Exchange, Trans Union's performance under the parties' agreement, contractual and technological delays in implementing Quote Exchange, Trans Union's refusal to turn over the Quote Exchange source code and other intellectual property to Endless River, and TransUnion's statements to third party market participants following TransUnion's decision to end its involvement with Quote Exchange.

7. David Drotos: Mr. Drotos is a former Vice President of Product Development at Trans Union. Endless River may call Mr. Drotos as an adverse witness. Areas of testimony include Trans Union's decision to enter into an agreement with Endless River to develop and market Quote Exchange, Trans Union's performance under the parties' agreement, contractual and technological delays in implementing Quote Exchange, Trans Union's refusal to turn over the Quote Exchange source code and other intellectual property to Endless River, and TransUnion's statements to third party market participants following TransUnion's decision to end its involvement with Quote Exchange.

(f) Proposed Voir Dire Questions

Question for the Court to ask:

1. Now, as we begin the questions, do any of you have trouble reading or understanding the English language?
2. Do any of you have a physical difficulty such as hearing or sight that would make it difficult for you to be a juror in this case?
3. Do any of you know me or my courtroom staff [state names]?
4. Now I will introduce the parties to you. Do you know any of the parties to this lawsuit? Endless River Technologies LLC; Trans Union LLC.
5. Do you know any of the attorneys involved in this lawsuit? Stephen Rosenfeld, David Cupar, Christopher Allen, Jacob Radecki; Mark Premo-Hopkins, and Britt Cramer.
6. The parties may call, but are not required to call, the following witnesses. Please let me know if you know any of them: Richard Bonitz, Phil Wintering, Ronald Somich, Dr. Andrew Malec, Geoffrey Hakel, David Drotos, Emily Lebowitz, Kristin Valters, Tom Shriver, Dr. David Denis.
7. Have you ever heard of a product known as the Quote Exchange? If so, what do you know about it?
8. What is your occupation?
  - a. if working in legal field, what do you do?

- b. if working in the insurance field, what do you do?
  - c. If working in the software development field, what do you do?
9. If empaneled, you will be asked to decide this case solely on the evidence provided in this courtroom, not on sympathy or prejudice or outside knowledge you may have, and on the law, which I, the judge, will instruct you on. If there is any reason you cannot perform this duty in this case, please raise your hand.

(g) Proposed Jury Instructions

Given the number of claims and issues in this case, the parties have agreed to file agreed and disputed jury instructions under separate cover tomorrow, September 8, 2022. We will both file those instructions and provide copies to chambers in Word format via email.
